FAQ

1. ELIGIBILITY

1.1 I am thinking about taking the JLPT in July, but I am not recontracting. The results will not be released until I have finished my term of appointment. Am I still eligible for the grant?

Yes. If you are a current JET participant at the time of the test, you are eligible to receive the grant even if the results will be released after you have finished your term of appointment, provided you meet the other conditions of eligibility. Please note, however, that in order to receive the grant, you must have an open bank account in Japan capable of receiving wire transfers at the time of payment (Mid-December for the July test, late March for the December test). Please understand that payments cannot be made to bank accounts outside Japan.

1.2 I have received the JLPT Grant before, but I would like to take the same level again and try for a higher score this time. Am I eligible to receive the grant again for the same level?

No. If you have already received the grant in the past, you may not receive the grant again for that same level. You can, however, receive the grant multiple times by passing higher levels of the test in succession. For example, you can receive the grant twice if you pass N3 in July and then N2 in December.

1.3 As there is a rule in my country that my JLPT qualification expires after one year, I need to continue to take the test on a yearly basis. Am I still eligible for the grant when I pass the same level of the test that I previously passed in my country?

No, you are not eligible. To give an example, if you have previously passed N1 in your country and then pass N1 again in Japan, you are not eligible. If you have previously passed N2 in your country and then pass N1 in Japan, you are eligible.

1.4 Am I eligible for the JLPT Grant if I take the test at a test center outside Japan?

No. Even if you meet the other conditions of eligibility, you are not eligible for the grant unless you take the test at a test center in Japan.

1.5 As I do not have a credit card, I am unable to pay for the test on my own. I would like to pay for the test through a friend or family member's credit card. In this case, am I still eligible for the grant?

2022-2023 JLPT Grant

No. Even if you meet the other conditions of eligibility, you are ineligible for the grant if you are unable to provide proof that you have paid for the test yourself. There are several forms of payment for the JLPT other than credit card, such as wire transfer, convenience store, etc. Furthermore, even if you do not have a Japanese credit card, it is possible to pay for the test with a Visa, Mastercard, American Express, JCB, or Diners Club credit card.

2. APPLYING

2.1 Do I need the permission of my contracting supervisor to apply for the grant?

No, it is not necessary to obtain permission from your contracting organization supervisor in order to receive the grant. However, you may wish to inform your contracting organization supervisor that you are applying for or have received the JLPT Grant, as Japanese study may be a component of your contracting organisation's workplace evaluation.

2.2 Do I have to send anything to CLAIR before taking the JLPT?

No, you are not required to send any documents to CLAIR before taking the test. You will receive notification of the test results several months after taking the test. 3. RECEIVING THE GRANT

3.1 What do I have to submit in order to receive the grant?

As outlined in the eligibility conditions, you must submit the JLPT Grant Application Form, copy of Japanese-Language Proficiency Test Test Result, copy of the inside cover of your Japanese bank book (or a copy of your ATM card if your bank does not print bank books), and original receipt or proof of payment directly to CLAIR by the designated deadline in order to receive the grant. 3.2 My bank in Japan does not print bank books, so I cannot provide a copy of my bank book's inside cover. What should I do?

Some banks in Japan, such as Shinsei Bank and Japanet, do not print bank books. However, such banks provide account holders with an ATM card. If this applies to you, please submit a photocopy of the front of your ATM card in place of the bank book copy.

4. OTHER

4.1 Does CLAIR offer a grant for levels of the JLPT besides N3, N2, and N1?

No, currently CLAIR does not provide grants for any of the other levels of the JLPT (N5, N4). This grant only applies to the JLPT, administered by Japan Educational Exchanges and Services (JEES) and the Japan Foundation. Please do not submit any documents related to these levels or tests to CLAIR.

4.2 Why does CLAIR only offer a grant for N3 and above?

CLAIR recognises that JLPT N3 is approximately the level required to understand and communicate in Japanese in everyday situations. While CLAIR and contracting organizations encourage all JET participants to study Japanese, the grant for N3 is aimed at encouraging JET participants to study Japanese and to reach a level where they are able to listen to and comprehend near-natural speed Japanese conversations in everyday situations. Acquiring such skills is likely to lead to smoother communication with one's colleagues and superiors and facilitate increased internationalisation in the local community.

CLAIR provides grants for N1 and N2 to JET participants who command a high level of Japanese to support their post-JET careers, whether in Japan or abroad.
